

STROLIN SYRUP

For the use of a Neurologist or a Hospital or a Laboratory Only

Abbreviated Prescribing information for STROLIN SYRUP (Citicoline 500 mg/5 ml syrup) [Please refer the complete prescribing information available at www.torrentpharma.com]

PHARMACOLOGICAL PROPERTIES: Citicoline is a pyrimidine 5-nucleotide which serves as an essential precursor in the synthesis of lecithin (phosphatidylcholine) and other phospholipids.

INDICATIONS: For the treatment at disturbances of consciousness resulting from head injuries, brain operation and acute stage of cerebral infection in adults only.

DOSAGE AND ADMINISTRATION: The patients who are unable to swallow tablets may be given citicoline syrup 1 to 2 teaspoon twice a day.

CONTRAINDICATION: Hypersensitivity to citicoline or any other component at the formulation.

WARNINGS & PRECAUTIONS: Citicoline may cause hypotension and incase necessary the hypotensive effect can be treated. Citicoline syrup is “NOT FOR CHILDREN USE”. Citicoline syrup must be prescribed by neurologists only.

DRUG INTERACTIONS: It must not be used with medicine containing meclophenoxates (or centrophenoxine). Citicoline increases the effect of L-dopa.

ADVERSE REACTIONS: Gastrointestinal disturbances, dizziness and fatigue.

MARKETED BY:

TORRENT PHARMACEUTICALS LTD.

Torrent House, Off Ashram Road,
Ahmedabad-380 009, INDIA

IN/ STROLIN SYRUP/500mg/5ml/May-15/01/AbPI

(Additional information is available on request)