Man robs and throws sales tax officer out of running train; arrested

VIJAY KUMAR YADAV
MUMBAI, AUGUST 7

THE GOVERNMENT Railway Police (GRP) in Dadar has arrested a 32-year-old man for allegedly robbing a Mumbai-based sales tax officer and throwing her out of a long-distance running train at Dadar station on Sunday. The 29-year-old officer who is a resident of Goregaon was going to Pune for some work when the incident took place, police said.

According to police, the officer boarded the Bangalore-Mumbai Udayan Express from Pune for Mumbai on Sunday around 4 pm. She was in the ladies general coach next to the guard's cabin.

"At 8.27 pm, when the train reached Dadar station platform number 6 (Central Railway), some passengers got down. When the train just started, a man boarded the ladies compartment, molested the complainant woman, and tried to snatch her bag. As she resisted him, in a bid to overpower her, the man threw her out of the running train," said senior inspector Smita Dhakane of Dadar police station.

She was alone in the ladies general coach at the time of the incident, police said, adding hence the accused managed to escape when the train left the station. The woman sustained injuries to head and hand and was rushed to a nearby hospital.

Meanwhile, Dhakane's team, under the superior's supervision, launched a hunt for the accused. "After scanning CCTV at Dadar and CSMT stations, we managed to trace the accused, Manoj Chaudhary, 32, within eight hours of the incident," said Dhakane. Police also recovered the woman's robbed bag, which contained some cash.

Chaudhary used to work in Pune as a security guard and was recently laid off from job. He claimed that he was in Mumbai to go to his native place in Madhya Pradesh, police said.

The woman, who sustained injuries, was left distraught by the incident and visited the police station only on Monday to file a complaint, police said adding her condition is stable.

"On the day of the incident the train had just started moving, and luckily, the woman fell on the platform," said another police officer.

Chaudhary has been arrested under sections 307 (attempt to murder), 394 (voluntarily causing hurt in committing robbery), and 354 (molestation) of the Indian Penal Code and 150(1)(e), 153, 137, 147, and 162 of the Indian Railways Act.

Chaudhary has no past crime record. His family has been informed about his arrest, police said.

Day 6 of bus workers strike: Lodha assures resolution within 48 hours

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, AUGUST 7

WORKERS OF the private wet lease bus contractors of Brihanmumbai Electric Supply and Transport Undertaking (BEST) continued their strike on the sixth day. As per BEST public relation official on August 7 (Monday), as many as 796 wet lease buses remained off-road due to the strike.

The workers have been demanding an increase in salary, equivalent to that being paid to internal BEST workers, apart from other perks and benefits.

Mangal Prabhat Lodha, Guardian Minister of Mumbai (suburbs), held a press conference at Mantralaya and assured that the strike would be resolved in the next 24-48 hours. He told the press that already two meetings had been held with wet lease bus contractors, and they were told about their workers' demands, which should be addressed appropriately.

Lodha also said that the gov-

People wait to get into a bus at Ghatkopar in Mumbai West on Monday. Express ernment will be conducting one more meeting with contractors.

Due to the strike, BEST has pressed Maharashtra State Road Transport Corporation (MSRTC) buses into service, to maintain its fleet size. On Monday, 122 buses were added to the fleet, as per BEST.

While private wet lease workers who had called strike and were protesting at Azad Maidan, Mumbai, Shinde-Sena party spokesperson and former Thane Municipal Corporation Mayor Naresh Maske held a meeting.

Raghunath Khajurkar, the bus driver who was the first to begin the strike along with his wife, told The Indian Express that they have been called to CM's bungalow at Varsha for talks.

Later at night they were called to the Thane residence of the chief minister.

CRIME BRIEFS

Four booked for bid to kill Jain 'sadhvi' in Thane

Thane: Four unidentified persons were booked on Monday for attempting to murder a Jain 'sadhvi' in Bhayander in Thane district, police said. Teams have been formed to identify and nab the culprits, they said. A delegation of the Jain community led by former BJP MLA Narendra Mehta arrived at the police station seeking quick and strict action in the case. As per Mehta's social media post, the sadhvi, objected to some persons in a four-wheeler dumping pigs at a site close to Balaji Complex when they threatened her with a hockey stick and tried to mow her down with the vehicle. PTI

Five arrested for stealing phones on buses

Mumbai: Five persons were arrested for allegedly stealing mobile phones from commuters onboard crowded buses and recovered 74 stolen devices worth more than Rs 7 lakh from them, police said Monday. After they received complaints about mobile phones being stolen onboard a few buses, Kandivali police scanned CCTV footages from bus stops and other places. They identified the accused who were apprehended from the western suburb of Kandivali. Two of the accused stole mobile phones, while the other three bought the stolen devices, the officer said. PTI

Labourer held for killing co-worker, dumping body

Mumbai: The Mumbai police have arrested a labourer for allegedly killing his co-worker and dumping the body in the septic tank at a construction site in the western suburbs, an official said Monday. Police had on August 3 found a body in the septic tank at a construction site in SV Road area of Oshiwara, he said. Police said the accused and the victim Charka Pujhar lost job at the construction site. The duo quarreled about returning to their hometown and in a fit of rage, Kera hit the victim with a bamboo stick several times and killed him on the spot, he said. PTI

Light to moderate showers over next 5 days: IMD

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, AUGUST 7

THE LULL in monsoon showers is here to stay with the India Meteorological Department (IMD) forecasting light to moderate rains in Mumbai as well as its neighbouring districts of Thane, Palghar and Raigad.

In its bulletin for the next five days, the weather bureau has issued no warning for Mumbai and its adjoining districts until August 11.

The data furnished by the IMD showed that between Sunday and Monday morning, the weather bureau's Santacruz observatory received 3 mm of rainfall while the Colaba observatory recorded only 0.2 mm rainfall.

Meanwhile, on Monday until 6.30 pm, Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation's automatic weather system showed that the eastern suburbs registered 0.74 mm rain followed by island city division which recorded 0.23 mm showers. The eastern suburbs, meanwhile, received 0.07 mm rain.

Scientists at IMD have attributed the less intense showers in the upcoming days to the movement of low pressure system towards Uttar Pradesh as well as no strong westerlies blowing past Mumbai.

Amid the light showers, the water stock in the seven lakes which supply water to Mumbai touched 81 per cent of the total capacity on Monday morning.

Last year, on the same day, the lake levels stood at 91 per cent whereas in 2021, the water stock reached 80 per cent.

Mumbai and suburbs experienced intermittent rainfall on Monday. Amit Chakravarty

Waikar plea: HC reserves order, refuses Somaiya's intervention

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, AUGUST 7

THE BOMBAY High Court on Monday rejected an intervention application by BJP leader Kirit Somaiya, in a plea by Sena (UBT) leader Ravindra Waikar against BMC's decision to cancel permission for development of land required for building a five-star hotel in Jogeshwari. Somaiya is the complainant in the case. The bench concluded arguments in Waikar's plea and reserved it for orders.

The bench said that Somaiya had no business to intervene in Waikar's plea. The HC had restrained Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) from taking any action on its communication to Waikar until further orders. A division bench of Justice Sunil B Shukre and Rajesh S Patil questioned the BMC Officials as to why they initially gave permission to Waikar, and why no action was taken against errant officials when permission was later revoked.

Refusing Somaiya's intervention plea, the bench said the BMC had a capable lawyer to handle the issue, and intervention was unnecessary. Somaiya had alleged that — "Waikar fraudulently obtained approval to build the 5-star hotel on a plot reserved for a garden, by using his political clout and causing a huge loss to BMC".

In response, Waikar had claimed that Somaiya's allegation had "no substance" and that "permission was granted to the petitioner after he followed the due process in 2020-21". He said the civic body, in an arbitrary manner, cancelled permission without giving him and the developers an opportunity to be heard.

According to the plea by Waikar, his wife Manisha, and three others in February 2004, there was an agreement between BMC, land owners, and petitioners (occupiers). BMC had permitted the occupiers, as per development control rules (DCR), to keep 67 per cent of the land under 'reservation open'. In 2005, the said land was purchased by petitioners. In 2018, as per development control and promotion regulations (DCPR), 2034, the petitioners were entitled to use the floor space index (FSI), as per the DCR, by handing over 70 per cent of the said land to BMC.

The petitioners claimed that in October 2020, that they, however, had decided to give up 70 per cent of the land, and apply to BMC afresh for development work by demolishing the existing area. Two months later, the petitioners' proposal was approved and permission for development was granted to them in January 2021. According to the plea, BMC, without complying with principles of natural justice or any show cause notice, on June 15, directly issued the impugned order, prompting the petitioners to approach the HC.

The BMC sought dismissal of the plea, stating that Waikar had not approached the court with "clean hands" and had "suppressed facts." The Court had asked the civic body to maintain the status quo till further orders.

The Court will pass its order in due course.

FIR against Rane for using 'Dalit' word in TV interview

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
MUMBAI, AUGUST 7

NAVI MUMBAI police have registered an FIR against BJP MLA Nitesh Rane for allegedly using the word 'Dalit' while speaking to a news channel, an official said on Monday. A complaint against the Kankavli MLA was lodged by a lawyer last week.

The complainant came across a video of Nitesh Rane's interview with a regional news channel on YouTube in which he used the word 'Dalit', whose usage is prohibited by the Centre government on August 7, 2018, the FIR stated.

The case was registered under IPC sections 153 A (Promoting enmity between different groups on grounds of religion, race, place of birth, residence), 153 B (Imputations, assertions prejudicial to national integration), and 295 A (Deliberate and malicious acts, intended to outrage religious feelings of any class by insulting its religion or religious beliefs), the official said. Police have also invoked provisions of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act. The offence was registered on court orders, he said, adding that further probe is underway.
